Has the honour to inform that Hoosani Masjid is too old and their Planks of the ceiling have lost their strength to bear the weight of terrace which is out of repairs. It seems if the present roof is allowed to remain it will sooner or later come down owing to reasons stated above. Relieving the heavy weight over the wood work an an estimate to provide light roofing for the building with Mangalore tiles, retaining the Plank ceiling there of is submitted for approval and sanction. The building with this improved roof will not only look nice but also last l
